Dear Parent/Carer,

The National Theatre Trip on Tuesday 14th March 2017

There will be a Sixth Form trip to The National Theatre, London on Tuesday 14th March 2017 to see 'Ugly Lies the Bones'. We will be travelling by train and will meet at Royston Train Station at 5.00pm. We will take the Train to Kings Cross Station and then underground Victoria to Green Park, Jubilee to Waterloo and then on foot to the National Theatre. The play is approximately two hours long and we expect to be back in Royston by 11:30pm. Please note that students are expected to buy their own rail travelcard, which should cost between £20-£25.

A £17.50 contribution towards the cost of the theatre ticket is required if your son/daughter would like to attend. Payment can be made by cash, cheque or via Parentpay. Please could you fill in the permission slip below.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Mr N Smith
Head of English
