

ICE Breakers

These ICE Breaker activities are designed to prepare you for the A Level ICE expectations.

You must break your way through each Ice segment below.

Written work must be presented in a portfolio/folder. You are expected to discuss this portfolio with your class teachers at the start of the year.

Read one or more of the following.
Write a review in which you appraise genre, purpose, audience & style

- Ann Radcliffe – The Italian
- Mary Shelley - Frankenstein
- Oscar Wilde – The Picture of Dorian Gray
- Toni Morrison - Beloved
- Iain Banks – The Wasp Factory

Familiarise yourself with the following texts:

- Dracula – Bram Stoker (Penguin Classics) ISBN: 978 0141439846
- The Bloody Chamber – Angela Carter (Vintage Classics) ISBN: 978 0099588115
- Hamlet- William Shakespeare [Heinemann Advanced] ISBN-10: 0435193104

Using your own revision style, makes notes on the following:

- Genre
- The life, times & work of each writer
- Plot outline & key characters

